Angel is in the London Borough of Islington. It is a beautiful, vibrant yet green and leafy area in Central London with excellent links to the rest of the city. The Zone 1 tube station is almost opposite the school and with the Northern Line, tube and bus services right outside, most locations in London are extremely close by. With shops, bars, restaurants and more, Angel has a huge variety of things to do.

The NI Centre has lots of popular high street shops, a cinema, a music venue and variety of restaurants.

Camden Passage is a colourful street filled with independent vintage clothes and jewellery shops, cafes and bars.

Upper Street is lined with trees and tasty restaurants from all over the world.

Chapel Market is the local market that runs from Tuesday to Sunday, buy your fresh fruit and vegetables here!

Camden Canal joins Angel with the rest of London. Stroll beside the water to Regent's Park or along to Hackney.

Angel is connected to the rest of London by the world famous underground system and the Islington Centre for English is right opposite the station.

Inside Zone 1 and on the Northern Line, it's easy to find your way to any part of Central London in around 15 minutes.
